 - ii. Members of the Representative Committee will be appointed at the AGM and will include the Representative Co-Ordinator(s).
 - iii. This committee meets regularly to discuss matters pertaining to the Representative teams, players, and personnel.
 - iv. Decisions put forward by the Representative Committee may be taken to the CNA Executive for further discussion, particularly if the decision has implications for the Association, representative personnel, or players (representative or otherwise).
 - b. Representative Personnel
 - i. Consisting of the following positions: Representative Coordinator(s), Representative Team Coaches, Representative Team Managers, Development Squad Coaches, Development Squad Managers.
 - ii. Other personnel positions may be appointed as required (e.g. Umpires Convenor, Coaching Convenor, etc).

- c. Representative Teams include
 - i. Junior teams : members of Charlestown Netball aged 12yrs, 13yrs and 14yrs who participate at the NSW Junior State Titles;
 - ii. Senior teams : members of Charlestown Netball aged 15yrs and 17yrs and Opens age who participate at the NSW Senior State Titles.
 - iii. An 11 years development squad : members of Charlestown Netball aged 11yrs, to help develop the skills and court play of our younger players so that they can trial for future representative teams.

3. Selection of Representative Personnel

1. The selection of Representative Personnel takes place at the end of the Winter Competition in preparation for the following season.
2. All relevant representative personnel positions are advertised on the CNA website and relevant social media, giving at least four weeks' notice.
 - a. Typically, the advertised representative personnel positions will include the
 - i. Representative Team Coaches,
 - ii. Representative Team Managers,
 - iii. Development Squad Coaches,
 - iv. Development Squad Managers, and

- d. As far as practicable, the coach should ensure that all players are given an equitable number of games at representative carnivals.
 - i. Adhere to the Netball NSW guideline regarding the number of games to be played by each player at the Junior State Titles (if applicable for their team).
- e. Where possible, coaches must attend all meetings set by the Representative Co-ordinator.
- f. Coaches must not bring CNA into ill repute due to playing tactics, negative behaviour, or bad language.
- g. The Association supports the pursuit of further coaching experience and training for all representative coaches, particularly within the coaching framework provided by Netball Australia.
 - i. At a minimum, all representative coaches should have current Intermediate Coaching accreditation at the commencement of the representative season, as required by Netball NSW for NSW representative competitions.

Managers

4. Managers

- a. Liaise with the Coach and Representative Coordinator about the players.
 - i. Keep an attendance record of players at all training sessions
 - 1. Report to the Coach and Representative Coordinator any player who does not attend training without a valid reason. Players who are absent for two or more weeks (including an inability to train due to illness/injury) are to be reported to the Representative Coordinator immediately.

- ii. Report to the Coach and Representative Coordinator immediately if they are informed of any condition which will affect a player's performance or their ability to attend training or games/competitions/carnivals.
- b. For teams with junior players (players aged less than 18), liaise with the parents/carers of players and provide an effective communication link between the representative personnel and the player and their parents/carers.
- c. Organise and ensure that players/parents from the team participate in the team's scheduled BBQ duty.
- d. Be responsible for ensuring that all team players and the Team Coach are present for the official team photo, as arranged by the Representative Coordinator.
- e. Be responsible for team equipment as provided by the association for the use of the team during the representative season, including first aid kits, tent shelters, benches, pinnies, balls etc.
 - i. Allocate the collection and coordinate the return of equipment (such as tent shelters, etc) as necessary for carnivals.
 - ii. Be responsible for returning to the Association in good order and condition, all Association property in the possession of the team within the specified time stated by the Representative Coordinator.
